

St. Mary's Parish was formed from Sittenburne Parish in Old Rappahannock County around 1677. By 1713 it covered a portion of Essex County. St. Mary's Parish at first extended on both sides of the Rappahannock River until its northern half, in Richmond County, was organized as Hanover Parish in 1713. The remaining portion of the parish was entirely in Caroline County when that county was formed in 1728.
